Carols Almost On Top Green

Rain almost stopped play on the Saturday before Christmas when the annual Carols-On-Top-Green was due to take place. Luckily with the cooperation of the church KICA was able to bring the event inside out of the rain. It was an enjoyable event hosted by Lewis Hancock who did a superb job. The evening was opened by a group of children from the village school singing Silent Night led by Maggie Jones and accompanied by the Holymoorside Brass Band.

The evening was well attended and made all the more festive by the mulled wine and mince pies served during the interval. Having the Holymoorside brass band to accompany the carols was a great success and gave the event a really festive feeling. After the carols and a short concert from the band the Rev. Kara Werner closed the evening with a seasonal prayer.

Boxing Day Walk

A hardy group from the village are pictured above walking off all that turkey and Christmas pudding around Carsington Water on Boxing Day. Look carefully for hidden quiz clues.

Kirk Ireton Snow Warden

We have been quite lucky so far this winter as far as 'snow and ice' is concerned but now we are in January the situation could change and for the worst. But don't worry, the village has a DDDC Snow Warden, Charis Harris, who will be able to help with any issues. Last week the village received its delivery of salt for communal paths and driveways. You can contact Charis on 372787.

Friendship Group Outing

This month's Friendship Group outing will take place on 15th January, weather permitting. We will meet as usual outside the Barley Mow at 10.00am. If you cannot come or require further information please phone me or Peter on 01629 822499.

Kate Spencer

Book Inn

The Book Inn will meet as usual at 8:30 on Wednesday 23 January in the Barley Mow to discuss The Poet's Wife by Judith Allnatt. All welcome.

New Year's Quiz

Can you identify who's got their Christmas pants on? The one-eyed dog might be a giveaway.

... Kirk Ireton Church & Chapel News ...

I wish you every blessing for this New Year.

We know from the carol 'We three kings from orient are....' (I will spare you both the rude and the childish versions thereof.....) that there were gifts of GOLD and INCENSE and of MYRRH.

So this month I offer you three prayers around those gifts to perhaps use, or to enjoy the rich imagery, or to ponder their meaning. Our Epiphany service when we especially focus on and celebrate the arrival of the three kings, or wise men, or magi, at the crib in Bethlehem, is on Sunday 6th January @ 11am – see you there perhaps.

At the offering of GOLD

Blessed are you, Lord our God, King of the Universe: to be praise and glory forever! As gold in the furnace is tried and purified seven times in the fire so purify our hearts and minds that we may be a royal priesthood acceptable in the service of your kingdom. Blessed be God forever!

At the offering of INCENSE

Blessed are you, Lord our God King, of the Universe: to you be praise and glory forever! As our prayer rises up in your presence as incense so may we be presented before you with penitent hearts and uplifted hands to offer ourselves in your priestly service. Blessed be God forever!

At the offering of MYRRH

Blessed are you, Lord our God, King of the Universe: to you be praise and glory forever! As you give medicine to heal our sickness and the leaves of the tree of life for the healing of the nations so anoint us with your healing power that we may be the first-fruits of your new creation. Blessed be God for ever !

Kara
